TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This is a mail bid auction conducted by Classical Numismatic Auctions, Ltd. and the following terms and conditions should be read by all interested parties before bidding in this sale.

1. The property listed in this catalog is offered for sale by CNA, Ltd. as agents for various owners and other consignors. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot before the close of the sale.
2. There is a 10% buyer's fee that will be added to all invoices at the close of the sale.
3. All lots are fully described. Grading is a subjective art. Every effort has been made to be conservative in our grading. Please note that an auction sale is not an approval sale. Lots examined prior to the sale may not be returned for any reason except authenticity.
4. Terms are for cash, with invoices being due and payable immediately upon receipt. Payment by check must be made in US funds and drawn on a United States bank. Visa and Mastercard may be used to pay your bill. However, a 3.5% surcharge is made for the use of your credit card. (Our cost from the bank.).
5. Bidders not known to us must provide us with satisfactory credit references. Minors are forbidden from bidding without a parent's signature on the bid sheet.
6. Bid in even dollar amounts. Mail Bidder Protection. You may submit bids with confidence. Where competition permits, your bids will be executed at 10% over the next highest bid. Please note, that most bids below estimate are rarely reduced, due to heavy competition. In the case where we have multiple copies of a lot, bids will be reduced to the next highest bid. (For example, if you bid $75.00 on a lot and another person bids $65.00 on that lot, and we have multiple copies of that lot, it will be awarded to both bidders at $65.00). If you bid over estimate, chances are that your bids will be reduced. In the case of tie bids - the bid received earliest wins. Bid by lot number. No lots will be broken.
7. A word on Reserves. If a book is reserved, it will not be in excess of the estimate. However, please note that bids that are below 60% of the estimate have little or no chance of winning, or being executed. Check your bid sheets carefully. The seller cannot assume responsibility for errors made by bidders.
8. Sales tax and postage are added to all invoices where appropriate.
9. Prices Realized are published shortly after the sale and mailed to all bidders who have participated in the sale.
10. If you bid in this sale, you accept the terms as outlined above. Any legal disputes that might arise will be handled in the courts of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

GOOD LUCK and remember to mail your bid sheets early. Closing date for this sale is Wednesday - July 25, 1990 at 5 pm local time.

The Library of Charles H. Wolfe and other Important Consignments.

We are proud to offer the following selection of numismatic reference books, catalogues, etc. featuring the library of Charles H. Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe has often been called "The Dean of Ancient Coin Dealers" in the United States and for many excellent reasons!

Mr. Wolfe started dealing in ancient coins shortly after World War II, and he quickly established himself as one of the leading authorities on ancient numismatics in this country. He has helped to develop and introduce many collectors and fellow dealers into the exciting worlds of Greek, Roman, Byzantine and Medieval coinages. He accomplished this "grass-roots" development of the hobby by his active participation in coin shows throughout the country. He remained active on the "Coin show circuit" until his retirement this year!

Mr. Wolfe's accomplishments in the field of numismatics include receiving the prestigious Farran Zerbe Award from the American Numismatic Association and the Sol Kaplan Founder's Award from the Professional Numismatists Guild - the two highest awards each organization bestows upon its members. Mr. Wolfe wrote the chapter on ancient coinage for the ANA's Intermediate Numismatic Correspondence Course, and he has sponsored the Best of Show award for junior members of the ANA at the annual convention for many years.

The dedication Mr. Wolfe has shown to the education of the collectors in this hobby he loves is prevalent in the books that he had in his own library. A long-time educator in the "real world," his commitment to the education of the collector and dealer was primary. He has set an example that his colleagues can only hope to emulate! While Mr. Wolfe has retired from the full-time occupation of dealing in ancient coins, he will continue to be active in his support and commitment to the field of ancient numismatics. Charles H. Wolfe is a true gentleman and scholar!

The principal sale catalogue offered above of the collection of Dr. Richard Mead is important both from a numismatic viewpoint and for the early history of the auction house of Sotheby's. Elvira Clain-Stefanelli, curator of the National Collection at the Smithsonian, notes in her work Numismatics - an ancient science that "the coins of Dr. Richard Mead (which were listed in a sale catalog, Museum Meadianum, 1755) ... helped place England among the leading nations in numismatics."

Samuel Baker, a London bookseller, opened his business in 1733. In March of 1744 he held his first sale of the library of Sir John Stanley. The first numismatic sale was held in 1755 when the above catalogue of Dr. Richard Mead was prepared. The books were sold for £5,508 and the coins realized £1,976 - a large amount for the time!

During the last part of the 18th century Samuel Baker's business continued to expand, not only in terms of volume but also in respect to the number of partners. George Leigh became a partner in 1774, and when Baker died in 1778, his nephew John Sotheby inherited the business. The name Sotheby has been a part of the business's title ever since 1778, and the firm has evolved into one of the premier auction houses in the world!
